RUSSIANS STILL CONFIDENT.

PORT ARTHUR GARRISON SENDS HOPEFUL REPORTS.

Respatch From Tientsin Declares That the Japanese Have Won No Material Success-Attackers' Fleet Taking No Part in Assaults-Stoessel's Wound.

Special Cable Despatches to THE SUN. LONDON, Nov. 18 .- A despatch to the Telegraph from Tientsin says that the latest reports from Port Arthur are that the Russians are persistently attacking the besiegers. Small parties of about fifty men each make numerous sorties nightly and throw grenades into the Japanese trenches.

They storm the enemy's outworks with the greatest daring, displaying absolute contempt for death. Their ordinary daily mortality is about seventy, but the Japanese losses are greater.

The Japanese fleet is not assisting in the hombardment of the fortress. Admiral Togo has been ordered not to lose any of his ships, and he therefore keeps them out of range of the Russian batteries.

The Japanese army has only captured a few advanced field works. The Chinese wall is intact, and the big permanent forts are not impaired. The huge inner fortifications at Bordi and Kikwan are untouched. Even the outer fort at Panlung has not been taken.

More than once the Japanese have badly blundered. They provided ladders only thirty feet long for use in fifty-foot moats. The younger officers are grumbling, and talk of taking matters in their own hands.

It is still impossible to shed any light on the real reason for the Russians sacrificing the destroyer Raztoropny. The idea that she was thrown away for the purpose of conveying the batch of colorless despatches since issued in St. Petersburg is regarded as absurd. The message of Mr. Fowler, the American Consul at Chefoo, tends to confirm the belief in many quarters that the Raztoropny's mission was significant of the end of Port Arthur.

It is reported, but without confirmation, that the destroyer took to Chefoo a number of naval officers, whose services are likely to be more valuable to the Baltic fleet than to the defence of the fortress.

Unofficial reports seem to indicate that there is some movement on the Sha River. The Tientsin correspondent of the Telegraph says the Japanese suddenly advanced and are now within twelve miles of Mukden, where the sound of their machine guns and rifles can be heard. This is supposed to indicate that Gen. Kuroki is attacking the Russian left.

This despatch harmonizes with press reports from Mukden that have been received in St. Petersburg. These reports, however, forecast attacks on the Russian centre and right. According to one of these the Japanese have landed 30,000 troops at Pitsewo. Thirty thousand from ingkow will be employed in an attempt to outflank the Russian right, cutting off its retreat to the town of Tieling

JAPS BLAME CHINESE.

Say That They Acted Unfairly in the Raz-

toropny Incident. Special Cable Despatches to THE SUN

LONDON, Nov. 17 .- The Central News' correspondent at Chefoo represents the Japanese as being incensed at the Chinese authorities, whom they accuse of conniving with the Russians to hoodwink the Japanese concerning the Russian destroyer Raztorophy, which was sunk by her commander in Chefoo harbor after a successful run from Port Arthur.

The Japanese also accuse the Chinese of allowing the ammunition, small arms and valuables from the Raztoropay to be deposited in the Russian Consulate, although these have since teen transferred to the Chir.ese cruiser Hai Yeng in consequence of the Japanese Consul's protest. Another ground of complaint is that the Chinese authorities are guarding the Russian Consulate. Moreover, the Hai Yeng has taken a position from which she is enabled to protect the Consulate. Rear Admiral Folger of the American Asiatic squadron has notified the Chinese that he will land marines if there is trouble. CHEFOO, Nov. 17 .- Three Japanese destroyers entered the harbor early this morning and then left, after satisfying themselves that the Russian destroyer Raztoropny had been sunk.

RUSSIANS STORE ARMS WITH CHINESE. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 .- The State Department to-day received a cable despatch from Consul Fowler at Chefoo, China, stating that three Japanese torpedo boat destroyers were off the harbor and that the Russians were carrying their arms and ammunition to a Chinese cruiser, which was anchored opposite the Russian Legation, apparently with a view to defending it from the Japanese. Consul Fowler, in an earlier despatch to-day, confirmed the report of the blowing up of the torpedo boat Raztoropny by the Russians, who removed their arms and personal effects to the Russian consulate. Apparently the appearance of the three Japanese torpedo boat destroyers caused them to believe that the consulate was not safe, and they then removed their arms and effects to the Chinese cruiser opposite the consulate.

RUSSIA RAISES OBJECTIONS.

Asks for Changes in the Draft of the North Sea Affair Convention.

Special Cable Despatch to TER SUN. LONDON, Nov. 17 .- Anews agency despatch from St. Petersburg says that Russia proposes only a few verbal alterations in the British draft of the convention for the holding of an international inquiry into the North Sea affair. The Russian say that they do not expect any delay in the signing of the convention. At the same time considerable importance is attached to the suggested modifitachable to any of the Russian officers is not in accordance with the spirit of the ommission of inquiry, as understood at St. Petersburg.

In this connection it may be pointed out that the words "degree of blame" were mistranslated in some quarters as "degree of punishment." It was a misunderstanding from which resentment resulted.

A news agency despatch from St. Petersburg says that inquiries made at the Russian Foreign Office this afternoon show that the convention is being discussed in a friendly spirit and that there is no reason to ahticipate an unsatisfactory result.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris, however, declares that the Russian version of the convention ignores the questions of responsibility and culpability, thus threatening a virtual deadlock in the negotiations.

BREWER RAUB FIGHTS FIRE. Badly Burned in Smothering His Servant's Blazing Clothing.

Herman Raub, president of the Consumers' Park Brewing Company, was badly burned about the hands yesterday morning while attempting to save the life of Minnie Obenselz, 19 years old, a servant in his home. The girl was lighting the fire in the kitchen of the Raub residence, at 111 Clarkson street. Flatbush, when her clothing caught fire. Her screams aroused Mr. Raub and his wife. Both hurried to the assistance of the woman, who was enveloped in flames.

Mr. Raub wrapped a quilt around the woman and threw her to the floor, rolling her over and over until the flames were smothered. She was removed to the Kings county hospital, where it was said she would probably die. After smotherng the girl's blazing clothing Mr. Raub had to get water and wet down the carpets and window shades, which were in fiames. He was able to be about during the day after the burns on his hands had

THE ABDICATION OF SIM FORD.

NO MORE AFTER DINNER SPON-TANEITY FROM THIS PUMP.

Leisured Ladies and Gentlemen Go to His Hotel to Beseech Him to Recon but (Unless He Changes His Mind) He Won't-Doesn't Want to Be Funny.

Telephone bells jangled insistently at the Grand Union Hotel yesterday. Slothful messenger boys dawdled in one to the minute. In the parlor, nervously fidgeting, were representatives from:

The Young Ladies' Sewing Circle. The Bronx Browning Club. Society for the Prevention of Insomnia Society for the Encouragement of Lending Money. The Ancient Dames of Amsterdam. The Liquor Dealers' Laughter League Society for the Suppression of Old Maids Bartenders' Brotherhood.

B sides these there were fourteen who presented no cards. Some were weary and travel stained. They had journeyed far. All of them wanted to see the proprietor, Simeon Ford, after dinner speakef and joke brother of Chauncey Depew and Job Hedges. In the anxious inquiries or every one there was a note of alarm.

The trouble clerk of the Grand Union, hotfooting from telephone booth to parlor could give small encouragement to the anxious ones.

"Mr. Ford is coming thro' from Rve. he said. "That's one of his own jokes, he added. "I suggest," said a prim little person who came from the Bronx Browning League, "That we name a chairman and hold meeting in regular order to discuss what best to do." There was applause and violent handclapping from a short fat man who represented the Liquor Dealers' Laughter League. The Ancient Dame of Amsterdam frowned upon him and he subsided

A pretty girl who was dressed in a brown tailormade thing that was tight and curvy, nominated an Ancient Dame for chairman, and the nomination was seconded by the prim person from the Bronx Browning Club.

"Let's adopt a resolution," said the girl in the brown dress. "We'll all sign it, and I think it will be just the thing. I've heard Mr. Ford is a lovely man."

Her idea was put in the form of a motion and seconded by a cheery, side whiskered individual who was there for the Society for the Encouragement of Lending Money. He said he knew Mr. Ford intimately and had touching reminiscences of their achad touching reminiscences of their acquaintance.

A committee of three, the Young Ladies

The resolutions were signed. Then the committee sallied forth to seek Sim, but the committee salled forth to seek Sim, but the frouble cierk had told the truth. The joker was not to be found. The Ancient Dame interviewed his stenographer, while the Liquor Dealer invaded Sim's bar, but there was nothing doing. They left their resolutions with the clerk and departed expressible.

An hour afterward when a reporter asked for Mr. Ford he emerged from his private office gloomily milking his nut brown beard. A friend of yours has said that

It means that you can never make a serious talk and be listened to appreciatively. I tried to do that once. I selected a pathetic, teary kind of subject and got really quite worked up myself. When I finished there wasn't a ripple of applause. A man said to me after the dinner: 'What in the world do you try to make a serious speech for and disappoint people like that? You ought to be ashamed of yourself.' On the way home my wife said, seeing that I was blue and melancholy, 'Never mind, Sim, you don't amount to much and you make a monkey of yourself when they ask you to; but you are solid with me. FEDERAL OFFICES NOT ODELL'S

PROMISES HE MADE IN THE CAM-PAIGN UNWARRANTED,

And Will Not Be Recognized, Say Republicans Back From Washington-The Senators From This State and Gov. Higgins to Be Consulted by President. Republicans of very great prominence, men who were in the forefront at Republican national headquarters in New York city during the campaign, brought to New York from Washington last night a confirmation of the statement that President Roosevelt is not to permit Governor-Chairman Odell to become a factor in the distribution of the Federal patronage in the State.

These Republicans brought at the same time from Washington also a confirmation of the announcement that the President is to discuss and to decide the distribution of the Federal patronage with the two United States Senators for the State, Senator Platt especially, and that on important State matters he is to confer with Gov. Higgins.

The announcement made by these eminent Republicans, they said, was intended to be well timed, for the reason that William Halpin, who is known as the Tammany Hall Republican chairman of the executive committee of the New York county committee, has industriously circulated for the last few days a statement that Governor-Chairman Odell was to be the dispenser of the Federal patronage to be handed out by President Roosevelt

These eminent Republicans went on to say that Mr. Halpin's statements on this matter were utterly misleading and without foundation, and they remarked, in addition, that while Mr. Halpin, as the leader of the Ninth Assembly district, lost his district to Coler in 1902 by only 250 plurality. on Nov. 8 Herrick carried the district by 1,557 plurality and Parker by 960.

President Roosevelt, it was furthermore announced, has been especially informed of everything that occurred both at Republican national headquarters and at Republican State headquarters during the campaign, and is not being misled by fallacious

They said that according to Republican custom from time immemorial the President and the United States Senators when of the same party have always disposed of the Federal patronage in the State, and that President Roosevelt has never had the slightest thought of breaking this rule.

The fact that President Roosevelt is to confer with Gov. Higgins was substantiated in a manner which eventually will come to the light of day. Promises which Governor-Chairman Odell made during the campaign in the President's name concerning Federal places will not be fulfilled according to these eminent national Republicans, for the reason as they explained, that the Governor-Chairman had no authority whatever to make these promises, and that his action was a re from the rule laid down by Chairman George B. Cortelyou of the national committee, who conducted the campaign from start to finish without making a single promise of any kind or entering into any agreement which in the slightest degree might prove embarrassing to President Roosevelt. That Governor-Chairman Odell did make certain promises in the name of President Roosevelt was stated last night by the eminent Republicans to be positively true.

GET PRISONER AT THEATRE. Newark Cope Trail Suspected Burglar Through His Sweetheart.

Charles Weigman, who gave his address as the corner of Fourteenth street and Third avenue, this city, and John Hern, who says he lives at Twenty-first street and Third avenue, each 22 years old, were arraigned in Newark yesterday for burgary and committed to jail in default of bail. The capture of the two young men late on Wednesday night was a creditable piece of work by Detective Sergeants Long and Ryan of Newark.

Weigman was suspected of having robbed the Waldorf shoe store, in Market street, Friday night last. A bar in the back window of the place was sawed off and $270 was taken from a shoe box which was placed on a shelf with other shoe boxes of the same kind. Weigman had been employed in the store up to a week or two before the robbery. Nobody in the store knew his address, but they knew that he had a sweetheart. Her house was watched. On Wednesday night they stopped a tre that night and contained a ticket. They instructed the boy to deliver the message and say nothing, and having noted the number of the seat they watched it and saw Weigman join the girl and take the next seat. After the first act they arrested him. weigman join the garrantees weigman was recognized by Ryan as a young man who was arrested nearly five years ago for holding up and robbing the late Carl Amman, a wealthy restaurant keeper. He was paroled from the State prison about six months ago.

The police say that under the rigid examination Weigman broke down and confessed not only to the robbery of the shoe messenger boy wno was approaching the house and found that he had a note for her. It was an invitation to attend a thea-amination Weigman broke down and con-fessed not only to the robbery of the shoe store, but to having planned with Hern to rob a grocery on Ferry street early yes-terday morning. He said that he was to meet Hern after the theatre at a saloon on Ferry street. The two detectives went to the saloon and found Hern.

PSORIASIS AND ECZEMA

Milk Crust, Scalled Head, Tetter, Ringworm and Pimples

COMPLETE TREATMENT, $1.00

For Torturing, Disfiguring Humours, From Pimples to Scrofula, From Infancy to Age.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of wornout parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum-all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made garding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

mour, consisting of Cuticura Soap to cleanse the skin, Cuticura Ointment to heal the skin, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills to cool and cleanse the blood may now be had for one dollar.
